Secretary's Office,
Howard University
Washington, D.C.

I have just received a copy of the University Bulletin showing the activities of the past year.

I read with interest the list of Alumni in the armed forces.
I learned that many of my former classmates are in the Service.

I am with the unit mentioned above. We are in the front lines on the Stutgen front, where the terrain is very rough.

I am serving with a heavy weapons Company - a platoon leader of a machine gun platoon

I am a graduate, in the class of 1930. The late Capt Herbert Orr whose picture appeared in the Bulletin was a classmate of mine, in high school and College. He was also a former member of this unit. His untimely death was a shock to all of us, because he was well liked through out the unit.

I wish to state that my name does not appear in the register. Please list my name.

Best wishes to the students and faculty of the University. We of the Alumni shall carry on until the defeat of the axis is complete.

Sincerely,
Thomas J. Johnson
